

Video Armageddon Remixed OUT NOW ON BANDCAMP!

Posted by toastandjamrecordings - 2024/01/18 19:36

Confusion's Video Armageddon remix has arrived like a neatly wrapped present under the tree. Once you undo the bow and tear off all that wrapping paper, you'll find a dazzling array of vintage video game sound effects and melodies to take you back to that day you unwrapped your first video game console. With his slick arrangement and punchy drums, Confusion delivers a tasty slice of ear candy for his debut release on Toast & Jam.
