3. Windom R - October
4. Windom R - First Frost

Every season is beautiful, but autumn probably is the best time for dreams and reflections. This is the time when nature starts to fade and to drop all of the sadness. Not to make you sad, but to anticipate the future discoveries.

Dear friends, we'd like to present you our new EP by Windom R. A melancholic breakbeat gently combines with electro and ambient passages. It's the best canvas for capturing your memories and having nostalgia.
